

CALIFORNIA STATE LODGE

FRATERNAL ORDER OF POLICE

Roger Mayberry, Immediate Past President

Roger Mayberry is currently serving as the Past President of the California Fraternal Order of Police, CAFOP, and is the current President of CA Lodge 1. He also holds the title of Director of Labor Services for the National Fraternal Order of Police. He served as Chairman of the Education Services Committee for two years, and was a member of the Labor Committee and adviser on the Legal Defense Plan Committee. Roger has an extensive background in legislative and labor-related issues.

He brings over 37 years of experience and background in collective bargaining, arbitration and grievance handling and was hired by NFOP as the first full-time Labor Field Representative for the Labor Services Division. Roger handled labor-related issues for FOP members, Local Lodges and State Lodges.

He organized and assisted with representation campaigns and election processes, worked on representation campaigns, negotiated labor contracts and memorandums of understanding, developed lesson plans and instructed on labor issues.

National Fraternal Order of Police, Director of Labor Services January 2022 to Present

Labor Services Division contracts with Labor units in 20 States currently for their labor related issues. Represent over 170 Collective Bargaining Units across the United States.

Labor Specialists - National Fraternal Order of Police, Labor Services Division

Roger has been a member of the FOP since 1990 and has served in numerous Local, State and National FOP positions including California State Lodge president 2000-2022. Before that he served as a National Trustee and Sgt at Arms at the national level.

Law Enforcement background 1972 - 2004

In 2004, Roger retired from the Los Angeles County Sheriffs' Department at the rank of Lieutenant.

Served in the US Army (Sgt.) and is proud Vietnam Veteran.