

CALIFORNIA STATE LODGE

FRATERNAL ORDER OF POLICE

Nathan Seger, Secretary

Nathan (Nate) Seger is currently serving as Secretary for the California State Lodge of the Fraternal Order of Police. He formerly served as the Chairman of Trustees for the State Lodge. He is also the President of Lodge #7 in Sacramento. In Sacramento, he is also a Sergeant with the Sacramento County Sheriff's Office and also holds the office of President of the Sacramento County Deputy Sheriffs' Association. He has served the community of Sacramento for close to 20 years and has spent close to 15 of those years as a union Steward/Board Member.

Nate has a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice and continues to further his education through specialized courses in the field where he works. Nate spent over four years in a patrol assignment and later spent time working with the narcotics teams across the state as a resource for electronic and covert surveillance. He serves on the board of the California Peace Officer's Memorial Board where he helps to honor those who have made the ultimate sacrifice.

Nate is actively involved in his church where he spends his off time mentoring youth and preparing them to lead the world into the future. He is happily married to his wife Tabitha for the last 19 years and is the father of four children.
